1973 STOCK OPTION PLAN

The outstanding Common Stock of the Company is fully listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

The date of this Prospectus is April 22, 1974.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The 1973 Stock Option Plan (the "Plan") of The Grand Union Company (the "Company"), the principal offices of which are located at 100 Broadway, Elmwood Park, New Jersey 07407, was approved by the stockholders on May 23, 1973. The Plan was created for key employees of the Company and the following subsidiaries: North American Equipment Corporation, Stop and Save Trading Stamp Corporation, Grand Union Stores, Inc. of Pennsylvania, Grand Union Stores, Inc. of Vermont, Grand Union of Martinsburg, Inc., Grand Union Stores of New Hampshire, Inc., Oxon Run, Inc. and S. & G. Distributors, Inc.

The Plan is designed as an incentive device to attract and retain competent management personnel by providing key employees of the Company and certain of its subsidiaries with an opportunity to purchase the Company's Common Stock, $5 par value (the "Common Stock").

It is intended that only non-qualified stock options be granted under the Plan. The grant of a non-qualified stock option results in no taxable income to the recipient or deduction for the Company. Upon exercise of the option, the holder will realize ordinary income in the amount by which the fair market value of the shares at the time of exercise exceeds the option price. Such amount will be deductible by the Company.

In addition to the Plan, the Company has an Employees' Qualified Stock Option Plan (the "1964 Plan"), which was approved by stockholders on May 27, 1964. These Plans, which are hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Plans", constitute the Company's employee stock option program. Shares issued pursuant to options granted under the 1964 Plan are covered by a Form S-8 Registration Statement, Registration No. 2-23844, which became effective on August 13, 1965. Options were granted under the 1964 Plan to all employees of the Company and certain of its subsidiaries who had completed certain periods of continuous service.

THE PLAN

Administration

The Board of Directors may from time to time amend the Plan, except that: (i) no amendment may affect or modify an option granted under the Plan without the consent of the optionee involved, and (ii) the approval of the Company's stockholders is required to increase the aggregate number of shares available for options or to change the eligibility requirements for options. The Board of Directors may terminate the Plan at any time with respect to any shares for which options have not been granted, and it is responsible under the Plan for the allocation of options among eligible employees, including the determination of terms and conditions of the options.

In all other respects the Plan is administered by a Committee known as the Stock Option Committee (the "Committee"), appointed from time to time by the Board of Directors of the Company from among its members or its former members. The Board of Directors may act upon recommendations of the Committee. The Company bears all administrative costs of the Plan.

The names and addresses of the present members of the Committee, all of whom are members of the Company's Board of Directors, are as follows:

Name	Address
S. William Green, Chairman ...	55 Liberty Street, New York, N. Y.
Thomas C. Butler	100 Broadway, Elmwood Park, N. J.
Irving Kahn	120 Broadway, New York, N. Y.
Arthur J. Quinn	1230 Avenue of the Americas, New York, N. Y.

Participation

As stated above, options are to be granted only to key employees of the Company and its subsidiaries. No options may be granted under the Plan after December 31, 1977. The Board of Directors determines the eligibility, without regard as to length of continuous service, of each employee (including officers), the number of shares to be granted (within the limits imposed by the Cost of Living Council), the number of shares allocated under each option and the terms and conditions under which options are granted. The Board of Directors has determined that in general, but not in every case, the number of shares optioned to employees under the Plan will be based on compensation received by them, and there is no minimum or maximum number of shares which may be optioned to any one eligible employee. No person while a member of the Committee, or director who is not otherwise employed by the Company may be granted an option under the Plan.

Under the Plan 600,000 shares have been authorized by the stockholders for optioning to eligible employees. The Board of Directors has granted 150,000 shares for allocation under options, and of this amount 149,025 shares have been allocated under option to such employees, including an aggregate of 22,900 shares allocated under option to eligible officers and directors of the Company as a group.

The approximate number of employees participating in the Plan is 1,284.

Exercise of Options

The Plan provides that no shares may be purchased under an option after seven years from the date it is granted, or after December 31, 1984, whichever date occurs sooner.

Options allocated under the Plan are evidenced by non-transferable stock option warrants (the "Warrants"). Options may be made exercisable in installments, and options or installments thereof may be exercised in part from time to time on any business day, except that (i) no option may be exercised during the six-month period commencing with the date of the option and (ii) during the next succeeding six-month period, no more than 50% of the shares purchasable under the option may be purchased. Maturity of any installment or installments may be accelerated at the discretion of the Committee.

The Plan specifies that no option may be exercised after termination of employment of an employee with the Company or its subsidiaries, except that: (i) if such termination of employment is (a) upon retirement at any age entitling the participant to a retirement benefit under the Company's Employees' Retirement Plan or (b) due to disability, any options held by the employee which are then exercisable, or which by acceleration become exercisable, may be exercised by him within three months after such termination; or (ii) in the event of death of an employee during his employment or within three months after his employment terminates by retirement or disability described in (i) above, any options held by the employee which are then exercisable or which by acceleration become exercisable, may be exercised within nine months after his death by the person or persons to whom the employee's rights under such options are transferred by will or the laws of descent and distribution.

Purchase Price

Under the Plan the purchase price of shares under each option shall not be less than 100% of the fair market value of such shares at the time of grant of the option.

Adjustments

The Plan provides that if the outstanding shares of the Common Stock of the Company shall be increased or decreased or changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares of stock or other securities of the Company or of another corporation, whether through reorganization, merger, consolidation, recapitalization, stock split-up, combination of shares, stock dividend or otherwise, the Board of Directors shall make appropriate adjustments in the number or kind of shares or securities available for option pursuant to the Plan, and in the number or kind of shares or securities deliverable upon the exercise thereafter, and the purchase price therefor. The determination of the Board of Directors as to such adjustments shall be conclusive.

Payment for Shares

Full payment for any shares purchased pursuant to the option must accompany the purchase order form pursuant to which an option is exercised in whole or in part.

Assignability of Options

Each option granted under the Plan and all rights thereunder are non-assignable and non-transferrable, except that each option may be exercised by the legal representative of a deceased employee within the period set forth under "Exercise of Options".

OPTIONS TO PURCHASE SECURITIES

In addition to the Plan, the Company has outstanding qualified stock options for the purchase of shares of Common Stock of the Company under the 1964 Plan. Options may no longer be granted under the 1964 Plan. The term for granting options thereunder expired on December 31, 1969. Shares covered by such options are purchasable as provided in the stock option warrants (with extensions in the event of retirement, disability or death upon terms similar to those in the Plan), but no shares are purchasable under any option issued under the 1964 Plan more than five years after the date of the option or December 31, 1974, whichever occurs sooner. Shares not so purchased may no longer be reoptioned. The purchase price per share under each option granted under the 1964 Plan could not be less than 100% of the fair market value of the Common Stock of the Company as determined by the Board of Directors at the time such options were granted.

OPTIONS OUTSTANDING

As of February 22, 1974, options were outstanding to purchase shares of Common Stock pursuant to the Plans as follows:

The closing market price of the Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange on April 19, 1974 was reported to have been $12.75.

On June 26, 1969, the Company's Board of Directors authorized the purchase by the Company, in the open market or otherwise, of up to 500,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock. Such shares are, initially at least, to be held in the Company's treasury. As of February 22, 1974, 309,418 shares had been purchased pursuant to this authorization at prices ranging from $15.25 to $28.50.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

On November 15, 1973, Cavenham Limited ("Cavenham"), a British company, made a cash tender offer for up to 3,200,000 shares of the Common Stock (approximately 51%) at a price of $19.00 per share. The Board of Directors of the Company neither approved nor opposed the offer. The offer was over-subscribed, with more than 5,200,000 shares being tendered. On December 3, 1973, Cavenham announced that its wholly-owned subsidiary Cavenham (Overseas) Limited ("Cavenham-Overseas"), also a British company, would purchase 3,200,000 shares. Through this tender offer, Cavenham and Cavenham-Overseas have acquired working control of the Company. Further information concerning Cavenham and Cavenham-Overseas is included under Stock Ownership on page 9.

On November 10, 1972, the Company entered into a Revolving Credit and Loan Agreement (the "Loan Agreement") with two banks. The Loan Agreement provides that the Company may borrow, repay and reborrow up to $25,000,000 through November 10, 1975, and on or before that date the Company may convert the amount outstanding into a seven-year term loan payable in 28 equal quarterly installments. Loans made under the Loan Agreement bear interest at a rate equal to (i) through November 9, 1973, the agent bank's prime commercial rate, (ii) from November 10, 1973 through November 9, 1975, 1/4 of 1% above such prime rate, (iii) from November 10, 1975 through November 9, 1980, 1/2 of 1% above such prime rate, and (iv) thereafter, 3/4 of 1% above such prime rate, provided that if the average interest paid during the term of the Loan Agreement exceeds 7-3/4%, the excess will be refunded to the Company upon the termination of the Loan Agreement. The Company is obligated to pay a commitment fee of 1/2 of 1% per annum on the unused balance of the amount available during the period of the revolving credit. There is no requirement that compensating balances be maintained.

On September 5, 1973, the Company entered into a Note Purchase Agreement (the "Note Agreement") with an insurance company, pursuant to which the Company has issued its promissory note in the amount of $20,000,000. Under the terms of the Note Agreement, the Company will issue a second promissory note in the amount of $15,000,000 on or before June 27, 1974. Both notes bear interest at a rate of 8% per annum and are payable in annual installments (in the aggregate for both notes) as follows: $1,000,000 in the years 1979 through 1983; $2,500,000 in the years 1984 through 1988; and $3,500,000 thereafter until maturity in 1993.

Both the Loan Agreement and the Note Agreement contain covenants by the Company as to the maintenance of a minimum amount of consolidated working capital. Under the more restrictive covenant in the Note Agreement, the Company agreed that its working capital, as defined, would at no time be less than $65,000,000. On March 3, 1973, the Company's consolidated working capital exceeded this amount by approximately $650,000.

NOTES TO SUMMARY OF EARNINGS:

1. The above fiscal periods comprise fifty-two weeks each, except for the fifty-three week period ended March 3, 1973.
2. Current investment tax credits are taken into income as the related assets are placed into service. Investment tax credits for the periods ended in 1969 through 1973, inclusive, amounted to $700,000, $175,000, $200,000, $550,000 and $950,000, respectively.
Income taxes also includes net charges for deferred taxes on income in the following amounts: $386,000, $270,000, $1,051,000, $366,000 and $408,000, respectively, for the fiscal periods ended in 1969 through 1973, inclusive. Deferred taxes result principally from the deduction of a larger amount of depreciation for income tax purposes, as a result of the use of an accelerated depreciation method and higher rates, over that provided on the books.
3. Extraordinary items for the fiscal period ended in 1973 consist of estimated losses of $1,120,000 net of income tax benefit of $1,120,000 of which $920,000, is deferred, from the closing of 5 stores completing the consolidation and streamlining of the Grand Way Division less a gain of $507,859, net of $217,654 income taxes, on the sale of 264,874 shares of Mortgage Growth Investors. The average cost method was used to determine the cost of the securities sold. The extraordinary item for the fiscal period ended in 1972 represents a provision for estimated losses in connection with discontinuing certain supermarkets and Grand Way stores. The provision was net of related income tax benefit of $1,000,000.
4. Based on the average number of shares outstanding during the respective periods, adjusted in 1969 for the 5% Common Stock dividend. The average number of shares outstanding during the fiscal periods ended in 1969 through 1973, inclusive, were 6,479,445, 6,517,394, 6,437,146, 6,435,156 and 6,358,143, respectively.
The annual dividend requirement on the 4½% Cumulative Preferred Stock, $50 par value, outstanding at March 3, 1973 is approximately $103,000. Earnings per share are stated after dividends paid on preferred stock.
5. Rents charged to income for the fiscal periods ended in 1969 through 1973, inclusive, amounted to approximately $17,787,000, $18,539,000, $19,428,000, $22,020,000 and $22,933,000 respectively.
6. Depreciation and amortization charged to income for the fiscal periods ended in 1969 through 1973, inclusive, amounted to approximately $9,923,000, $10,638,000, $11,570,000, $12,845,000 and $13,938,000, respectively.

Based upon unaudited financial statements, net sales and net income of the Company and its subsidiaries for the thirty-nine week period ended December 1, 1973 were approximately $1,097,961,000 and $4,789,000 ($.74 per share) respectively, compared with net sales of approximately $992,802,000, income before extraordinary items of $5,668,000 ($.88 per share) and net income of $5,056,000 ($.78 per share) respectively, for the thirty-nine week period ended November 25, 1972. In the opinion of the Company, all adjustments necessary to a fair statement of the results for such interim periods (consisting only of normal recurring accruals) have been included. Net sales and net income for the thirty-nine week period ended December 1, 1973 are not necessarily indicative of net sales and net income which may be expected for the remaining quarter of the 1973 fiscal year, or the results for such year as a whole.

In recent years, because of intense price competition in the northeast and sharp increases in the costs of goods purchased and higher costs of operations, the Company has lowered margins to increase its sales. The increased competitive activity coupled with sharp increases in the Company's costs of doing business were the primary reasons for the lower rate of profit.

DESCRIPTION OF COMMON STOCK

Dividend Rights: Subject to the restrictions of the Indenture and Loan Agreement referred to below and to the dividend rights of the 4½% Cumulative Preferred Stock, $50 par value (the "Preferred Stock"), dividends may be paid on the Common Stock as declared by the Board of Directors from funds available therefor.

Holders of the Preferred Stock are entitled to receive preferential cumulative quarterly dividends at the rate of $4\frac{1}{2}\%$ per annum, and any deficiency must have been fully provided for before any dividends may be paid or other distributions made on the Common Stock. The Indenture under which the Company's 4-1/8% Subordinated Debentures due 1978 were issued limits the Company's capability to pay dividends on or acquire shares of Common Stock, but this limitation is less restrictive than similar limitations described in the following paragraph.

Both the Loan Agreement and the Note Agreement (see Recent Developments), contain restrictions on the Company's capability to make dividend payments on or purchases of the Common Stock ("Restricted Payments").

Under the Loan Agreement, commencing with the accounting period beginning on February 27, 1972, no Restricted Payments may be made if the aggregate of all Restricted Payments exceeds the sum of (i) $5,000,000, (ii) consolidated net income before extraordinary charges and (iii) aggregate net proceeds from the sale of capital stock to the extent such proceeds do not exceed the aggregate amount expended to acquire, redeem or retire capital stock.

Under the Note Agreement, commencing with the accounting period beginning on March 4, 1973, no Restricted Payments may be made in excess of an amount equal to (i) the sum of (a) $10,000,000, plus (b) 75% of consolidated net earnings (or minus 100% of any deficit) minus (ii) the sum of (a) the aggregate amount of all dividends and distributions plus (b) the excess of the aggregate amount expended to acquire, redeem or retire capital stock over the aggregate amount received as the net cash proceeds of the sale of stock.

At March 3, 1973, the Company had approximately $7,100,000 of retained earnings free from the presently more restrictive of the aforementioned covenants.

Voting Rights: Except as stated below, holders of the Common Stock possess full voting power for all purposes and are entitled to one vote per share. If dividends on the Preferred Stock in an amount equal to six quarterly dividends are in arrears, holders of the Preferred Stock are entitled to elect two directors at the annual meeting and holders of the Common Stock are entitled to elect the remaining directors; when all arrears have been paid or declared and the current dividend declared, the holders of the Preferred Stock are divested of voting power for directors. The holders of the Preferred Stock are not entitled to vote in respect of other matters, except as may be specified by Delaware law and except that the consent of the holders of two-thirds ($66\frac{2}{3}\%$) of the outstanding shares of Preferred Stock is required for the Company to (a) authorize any stock or class of stock having preference or priority over the Preferred Stock as to dividends or assets or (b) amend the Company's Certificate of Incorporation so as to affect adversely the preferences or other rights thereby given to the Preferred Stock.

Liquidation Rights: On liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, or in the event of any reduction of the Company's capital resulting in any distribution of its assets, the holders of the Common Stock are entitled to receive, as a class, pro rata, the assets of the Company available for distribution to stockholders after payment to the holders of the Preferred Stock of $50 per share if such liquidation, dissolution, winding up or reduction of capital shall have been involuntary, or $52 per share if it shall have been voluntary, plus, in each case, accrued dividends.

Preemptive Rights: The preemptive right of the holders of the Common Stock has not been altered or abridged, except that such holders have no preemptive right in respect of shares of Common Stock issued or to be issued upon exercise of options granted pursuant to the 1964 and 1973 Plans.

Miscellaneous: In the case of outstanding shares of Common Stock there is no liability, and in the case of authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock to be issued upon exercise of options there will not be any liability, for further calls or assessments. There are no conversion rights and no redemption or sinking fund provisions.
